Our customers have expressed the desire to be able to scroll complete catalogue pages relating to their needs instead of just formulating requests in the search bar or expanding underlined answers. So, from now on, our printed catalogues bearing the date 1999 and beyond will be accessible as PDF files.

If you wish to check for new or earlier additions to the catalogue you will need to go the database. Of course, the number of catalogues will increase, but they will not be updated as often as our free text database.

To be able to read the PDF files, you will need Acrobat Reader.

“Me first orchestral piece, Sculpture II, written in 1980–81, was a monstrous attempt to create a dense orchestral texture and required two conductors in performance. The project was originally conceived in three movements (Frei scultore), but due to the complexity I was able to achieve only the middle section of the work.”

“I returned to the symphony orchestra in 1983, when I started work on Aura, which was completed in 1985. I was still obsessed by the large apparatus of the late Romantic orchestras. But with auscultation and love...”
